Silent Auction Bidding Procedure

Creating a logon for the new auction website

Go to this web address: http://preview.togetherauction.com/uuroanoke

Click Sign in and use one of the options provided:

- Social Login: let Google or Facebook enroll you. No new password is necessary.
- Email & Password: you will be emailed a confirmation link to finish creating your account.

Completing registration (member profile)

- If you are new to online UUCR auctions, open the menu at the top right and select Complete new registration to add a member profile. Fill in:
  Name — Use the name you want on bid sheets and statements. For couples: "Bill & Mary Smith" or "Sue Jones & Sally May."
  Phone — Required; used for contact and on bid sheets.
  Email — Not shown publicly.

- If you have bid or donated in previous UUCR auctions, the system should recognize your email address when you log in and connect your old records with your login*. Then just complete/edit your registration as needed.

  *If your email address doesn't match the old records, you can use the "Claim my old record by phone" method. From the top-right menu, choose Claim my old record by phone).

Browsing the catalog and filters
Use the Catalog to see all items. Use the filter options to narrow by category, price range, "My bids," or other criteria. The calendar lists dated events so you can see what's on which day and add items to your own calendar.

Online bidding and hidden max
When online bidding window opens, open an item and place a bid. You also have the option to enter a maximum bid; the system will place bids for you only as needed to keep you in the lead, up to your maximum — you won't necessarily pay your max unless someone else bids that high.
Outbid emails: If someone outbids you, you'll receive an email so you can bid again if you want. If you've opted in, you can also receive this as a text.

Note Contact Lynn Yates or Sheri Bernath with questions.
