Upcoming Worship

November 4 – “The Come-To-Jesus Sermon” with RevAlex
It’s a Sunday when our settled minister, RevAlex, feels called to deliver a come-to-Jesus sermon to the congregation he serves. God knows what he might preach, and so will you if only you come to worship! Come, Come to hear an old fool exercise our faith’s precious heritage of the free pulpit.

November 11 – White Supremacy Teach-In/Talk-In with the Racial Justice Team
What is the difference between non-racism and anti-racism at UUCR to be more anti-racist and promote racial justice? With this morning’s service, we continue the work of last February’s White Supremacy Teach-In, with videos, readings, and lots of time for sharing reflections with each other. This teach-in will focus on UUCR as an institution and give us an opportunity to reflect on what we currently do and what we might aspire to do to promote racial justice. We hope you will join us on this journey. Note that this service will last until 12:15.

November 18 – The choir is singing so please join Kerry Morgiewicz, Music Director and Alan Moore, D.L.F.D. for a special Thanksgiving service! Chill Cook-off to follow!!!

November 25 – “Thanksgiving Redux” with RevAlex
Everyone is invited to bring holiday leftovers this Sunday so that while we worship we can also do some additional brunch feasting. The hope is to enjoy again the tastes of Thanksgiving, the pleasure of being with others at a table, and the goodness of worshipful contemplation of the abundance of our lives.

December 2 – “Winter Holidays I” with RevAlex
On this Sunday, we begin the joyful work of preparing our worship space and our spirits for the winter holidays. We’ll hang greenery. A tree will be erected, and covered with a multitude of lights and ornaments. We’ll also dust off our spirits and move towards restoration of our souls. We will once again lift up the great wisdom of making Merry in the cold and dark. Come, Come to share the great gift of your being!
from the Rev...

My stomach has been in my throat way too often over the last two years. I've understood that the way of life I prize has been under attack. Most, if not all of you, know why. The moments when I've felt relief, and renewed sense of hope during this time, have more often than not been when an individual, or a small group of folk, give expression to values I cherish, values in contradiction to that which brought me my two years of anxiety.

I'm hoping and praying that November's election results reflect the values I hold dear. I hope too that the great work of value-setting upon which we, as a congregation, are embarking, will do likewise. I am convinced that when we are articulate about what we value, we give hope and courage to many more to do likewise. It is very important that liberal and progressive persons of faith speak aloud their values.

Deep thanks to each of you for all you do as persons of faith to courageously give voice to your values. Our country's beginning was largely grounded in the goodness of such a faith practice.

I hope we all have special cause for Thanksgiving this month.
I am especially thankful for the many ways you help me to know hope.

Much heart, RevAlex

from your UUCR Board...

The UUCR Board had a very successful retreat led by Darwin Honeycutt, a UU with excellent facilitating skills. We have Darwin's recommendations in hand, and will be using them as we work on behalf of the congregation this year.

I want to welcome our newest Board members, Jimbo Harshfield and Tim Andriano. We are fortunate to have the advantage of their considerable experience in church leadership to add to a dedicated group of volunteers. We still need a Vice President for Finance, so, if you want to join us or to recommend someone else, contact Spike Harrison, Chair of the Nominations Committee.

Thank you
Cy Dillon, Board President

Here's a short message from Jimbo:
Hello UUCR!
I am Jimbo Harshfield, one of your two newest Board members. I am enthusiastic to help make UUCR become even more wonderful. My first task is to help improve communication between the board and the members and friends of the congregation, and you can help! Just send me your ideas and opinions about UUCR. What do we need? What could be better? What information is missing? I want to send your ideas to the Board, and I want to keep you informed about what the Board is doing. So send me your thoughts; reach me at jimbo.harsh803@gmail.com. Thank you, Jimbo

November Birthdays...

If your name isn't listed, email lindagwallis@gmail.com with your month and day.
The choir is singing November 4th and November 18th. Please join Kerry Morgiowicz, music director and Alan Moore DLFD for a special Thanksgiving service on the 18th. Chili Cook-off to follow!

Lifespan Faith Development

"Life is moving. The healthiest thing for your heart is to move with it." — Rupi Kaur

Our Faith Development Goals

- Catalyze and nurture learning and growth
- Foster religious literacy and our individual and congregational UU identity
- Provide relevant, inclusive, multi-generational faith development opportunities
- Act as individuals to develop our social conscience, and take compassionate steps to live our faith in community

Children’s Religious Education - 11 am

Nursery (ages 0-3)
Our trained caregivers provide a fun, loving, and educational environment to foster play and friendships.

Chalice Children (pre-K)
Young children are introduced to basic concepts of religion and Unitarian Universalism in the context of our home and traditions at Unitarian Universalist Church of Roanoke, with crafts, activities, and play.

Picture Book Religions (grades K-2)
Using picture books and fun, meaningful activities for teaching young children about religious stories with a UU perspective, sourced from two great curriculum: Picture Book World Religions and Picture Book Bible Tales. The stories illustrate concepts such as the value of wisdom and loyalty in Hinduism, the importance of family in Islam, and the practice of compassion for all living beings in Buddhism.

Holidays and Holy Days (grades 3-5)
A newly revised version of an old favorite. Kids progress through the year's religious calendar, learning about, practicing, and honoring holiday traditions from many cultures.
Youth Religious Education

Building Bridges (grades 6–8) 11 am
A year-long exploration of the diversity of faiths in our neighborhood. Kids spend several weeks learning about a major faith tradition, including a visit to a local example of that faith community. Religious explorers of all ages are invited to join the youth on these Out of Church Experiences.

YRUU High School Youth Group (grades 9–12)
High schoolers have a schedule of activities through the Fall semester to include: mentoring, paintball, serving as greeters at worship, supporting pack-a-snack, It's Scary to be Hungry drive, escape room, chili cook off, holiday dinner, and events with other youth. The High School group engage in leadership development and social action, plan and execute fun activities, explore spirituality, and share within a circle of confidentiality.

Teen youth participation is also encouraged in Adult Faith Development and leadership programs.

Adult Faith Development

Living the Questions – a weekly Sunday morning adult RE discussion group. Books are chosen by consensus, and then read and discussed over the course of several weeks. Sundays at 9:30 am in the Olin Room. For more information, contact Gene Edmunds at gene.edmunds@gmail.com.

We continue with the discussion of Braiding Sweetgrass by Robin Wall Kimmerer. "A wondrous journey into First Nation mythology, the interconnectedness of plants, trees, and animals with the human community, and how we learn our best knowledge from the natural world."

Sangha – a new group for discussion, practice, and support of BUuddhist and Buddhist-inspired principles and thought. Contact Alan amoore@buroanoke.org if you are interested.

Out of Church Experiences (OOCEx) – in support of this year's LFD theme – 'Concepts of God and Neighboring Faiths' – we have congregational visits planned this year with local Hindu, Buddhist, Jewish, Catholic, Protestant, Muslim, and Native American communities in the area. These congregational engagement activities are primarily structured through our Middle School Building Bridges curriculum and YRUU High School youth group but are welcome to UUs of all ages to participate. Dates for visits will be announced on the church calendar, in church newsletter, and on social media.

Community Service and Volunteering are also essential experiences for our UU individual and congregational faith development. Talk to staff or leadership about these opportunities.
THE KIDS ARE CALLING YOU!
PLEASE HEED THE CALL!
We need adults to help us learn!
Volunteer to serve with Education Ministry!

A new school year is underway and we need you now! Our support of youth programs demonstrate that we value children and young families in our congregation. There are opportunities for everyone. We do all the preparation for you; You and the kids have all the fun!

- Teachers join 4-person teaching teams for a chosen age group for a semester. Lesson plans and class materials are prepared in advance by LFD staff and volunteers. Each volunteer need only choose four Sundays as Lead and four Sundays as Assistant, leaving each teacher 12 free Sundays per semester.
- Advisors support middle school and high school youth groups and activities
- Child Caregivers (16 and older) support the nursery and receive an hourly wage
- Crafters are always needed to brighten and enliven our programs and learning spaces
- Classroom Aides help young children who benefit from one-on-one interaction
- Substitute teaching and other volunteer opportunities arise throughout the year

Check out the class calendars and sign up on the bulletin board outside the main office

Facilities Events Not to Miss

Living the Questions Class
The Living the Questions class are studying Thich Nhat Hanh’s book "The Art of Living". We meet in the Olin room on Sunday mornings at 9:30 am. Please order your own book and join us for a life changing study. All are welcome.

Women's Group at UUCR
Would you like to join the women’s group? It’s a place for sharing and reflecting with other UU women. Meetings are 1st and 3rd Thursdays at the church 11:30 -1:30. Contact Bonnie Nelson at 588-1452.

Qoya Dance and Movement Series!
Everyone is welcome to come and attend any class they would like. Registration is requested but you can still come if you haven’t and decide to try it. Contact Laura by email with any questions.

Qoya Dance and Movement Series!
You are invited to a Qoya Dance and Movement series for LGBTQ+ Allies in the Roanoke Valley and surrounding area. This sacred dance and movement group is offered by Certified Qoya Instructor Laura Farmer. All genders, orientations, and movement levels are welcome, ages 14 and up.

What is Qoya?
Qoya is movement with meaning – it is a practice that is based on the idea that through movement we remember our essence is wise, wild, and free. The best way to learn about Qoya is to experience it! Qoya is rooted in yoga tradition, expressive dance, and the Divine Feminine. Qoya classes and movements combine the traditional benefits of fitness - strength, flexibility, balance, endurance - with a unique empowering approach that is adaptable, expressive, and FUN.

There are five Qoya classes offered in this series. Class sessions begin Oct. 27. You are encouraged to participate in the full series, as each class will build upon the previous. However, single class registration is also available.

When / Where
Classes will be held in the Fellowship Hall at the Unitarian Universalist Church of Roanoke (2015 Grandin Rd SW) Saturdays from 10am-12noon. The movement portion will last approximately 90 minutes, followed by a half hour of social time with light refreshments.

Registration Required
Class size is limited. Classes will be filled on a first come, first serve basis. Class value $20, with sliding scale option. In order to reserve your spot, you must complete the registration form at: https://tinyurl.com/qoyaseries

Classes and Themes
Oct 27: Theme “Slow Down to Feel”
Nov 3: Theme “This is Me”
Nov 17: Theme “Body as Home”
Dec 1: Theme “Community”
Dec 8: Theme “Love is Greater”

About the Instructor
Laura Farmer is a licensed professional counselor, certified Qoya instructor, and full-time professor at Virginia Tech. She is passionate about facilitating embodied healing experiences through Qoya, expressive arts, mindfulness, and other experiential practices. Questions? Email laurafb farmer@gmail.com
THE SOLAR PATRIOT

November 9th, 2018 – Social time, 6:30 (snacks welcome) Program, 7:00

In the spirit of 1776, The Solar Patriot aims to recruit ordinary citizens as champions for homegrown, all-American clean energy. If you think that solar power should become America’s top energy source, and you’d like to help make it happen, then this is the book you’ve been waiting for.

Even if you don’t have solar panels on your own roof, The Solar Patriot will give you ideas to join the revolution to free America from the tyranny of fossil fuels and make our nation cleaner, safer and more prosperous. Enlist now!

Erik Curren, author of The Solar Patriot, is a long-time advocate for clean energy and other solutions to fight climate change. Since 2010 he’s run the Curren Media Group, which offers marketing services to solar companies. He’s also served on City Council in Staunton since 2012. Erik is a history buff and sees many parallels between America’s fight for political freedom in 1776 and today’s battle of climate patriots against fossil fuel tyrants for clean energy independence. Erik and his wife, Lindsay, also a history buff, love exploring Virginia’s old houses, restored towns and battlefields. They live in a 1910-era home in downtown Staunton, and have two grown daughters.

This program is sponsored by the Unitarian Universalist Church of Roanoke and the Roanoke Group of the Sierra Club. Programs are held on the second Friday of each month at the Unitarian Universalist Church, 2015 Grandin Road SW, in Roanoke at the intersection with Brandon Avenue. Snacks for the social time before & after the presentation are welcome but not required. For more information contact Dan Crawford at dbcrawford@cox.net or 540-343-5080 or visit the Sierra Club website at http://sites.google.com/site/roanokesierra/ Also, please visit the UUCR Green Team website at: http://uuroanoke.org/outreach-justice/green-team/

UUCR Recycling

We need your help! Now that we have clearly marked recycling bins in the kitchen and around the church, we are set up better than ever to recycle. The Recycling Team asks that you look carefully at the items being placed into our bins. You may not be aware that Roanoke City no longer accepts #3 - #7 plastics. If it is a #1 or #2, it's recyclable. If there is any other number or there is no imprint, please do not recycle it. Other items that are recyclable include: aluminum beverage cans, steel cans, and tin cans, glass bottles and jars, mixed paper, newspapers, magazines, cardboard boxes, and pizza box lids (with no food scraps or grease). If you’re in doubt about whether to recycle an item, and there is no one around to ask, it is probably best to put it into the trash bin.

Our Recycling Team assigns somebody to sort through the bins each Sunday and bring the recyclables out to the big blue bin. They often find plastic bags, aluminum foil, food, or other plastic or metal objects which Roanoke City does not recycle. For your own information, it is nice to know that you can take metal items to Gerdau Metals Recycling (off of Wonju Street) or clean plastic grocery bags to the grocery store.
ANGEL TREE at UUCR

This holiday season, Reading Seeds, UUCR's own literacy initiative for at-risk children, will be putting up an angel tree in the small sanctuary at UUCR.

Please choose an angel and buy a new book for Reading Seeds to deliver to one of the children at Raleigh Court's Head Start Center. Each angel represents a child and will have suggested books to make your shopping easy. (If you prefer to make a donation and have Reading Seeds do the shopping for you, that works, too!) Make a donation at https://support.firstbook.org/readingseeds or write a check to UUCR with Reading Seeds angel in the memo line! Return the new, unwrapped books under the angel tree no later than December 23rd.

Joys and Concerns

One of the missions of the Caring Committee is to provide support to the members and friends of UUCR in times of need. If you need assistance following surgery, during an illness or other emergency and would like a call from the Caring Committee, email Sally Garber at jcssgarber@comcast.net. If you would like to occasionally help your fellow UUs by providing a meal or a ride, please add your name to the Caring Committee list of auxiliary volunteers, by contacting Sally Garber at jcssgarber@comcast.net.

Ann and Bill Hackworth - They have a new grandson, 2 1/2 year old Henry Jun Ze Long arrived in the U.S. on Friday, September 28, 2018. He has been adopted by Bill's daughter Elizabeth and her husband Forrest and will join brother George and sister Caroline.

The Diversity Action Group (DAG) of UUCR

DAG is helping to sponsor the below event at Roanoke College on Thursday, Nov. 29th at Colket Center starting at 7:30 PM. The main sponsor is the Ivies Inc. of Roanoke Valley-a group of black sorority sisters. This event is the culmination of the teach-ins, one held last February and another to be held on Sunday, November 11th at UUCR.

The Speaker for this event will be Jim Wallis, the author of the 2016 book “America’s Original Sin: Racism, White Privilege, and the Bridge to a New America.”

It has been the mission of DAG to bring black and white communities together. Please join us at Roanoke College. Tickets for this event are $25.00. Monies raised will go for college scholarships for black students. To buy a ticket, please call Barbara Smith, DAG Chairperson, at 540 589 3337. There are a limited amount of tickets for the Colket Center. Please reserve your ticket ASAP. You can write your check to Ivies, Inc. of Roanoke Valley.
UUCR Housekeeping

The Church Member Directory has been posted on the website with a member password. If you are a member, please contact me for that password. I would like to ask members to look over the directory, and email me any updates that are necessary.

UU World Magazine subscribers... If you are not sure that you are subscribed or if you would like to be subscribed to get the quarterly publication, email me today with the correct address, phone number, and email address.

For safety and liability reasons, there should not be anyone in the church without prior scheduling. Please put all supplies away after using any room at UUCR on any given day. There are a lot of persons coming and going, and we like to have each room ready to be used at any moment. Thank you for taking care of your church.
