

Selected Unitarian Universalist Anti-Racism Resources

The 8th Principle is a movement within Unitarian Universalism advocating for the adoption of an 8th principle, articulating a commitment to the dismantling of white supremacy within the stated principles of our faith.

<https://www.8thprincipleuu.org/>

Black Lives of UU (BLUU) is an organizing collective committed to expanding the power and capacities of Black UUs within our faith, providing support for Black UUs, and justice-making and liberation through our faith.

<https://www.blacklivesuu.com/>

Diverse Revolutionary Unitarian Universalist Multicultural Ministries (DRUUMM) is a UU people of color ministry and anti-racist collective.

<http://druumm.org/>

UU Allies for Racial Equity is building an anti-racist movement of white UUs to dismantle white supremacy in ourselves, our congregations, and our communities. The site has lots of resources for learning on your own.

<https://uuare.org>